Timer Revenue Series

Presenters: Soren and Downin? Description:

Will enable microphones, cameras for attendees to participate in discussion.

Join us for a special edition of Timer Tip Tuesday, where we dive into innovative and practical strategies timers are using to grow their revenue and strengthen their businesses.

This interactive session is designed to spark ideas and foster collaboration within the timing community. RunSignup's Soren Larson will kick things off by sharing some of the creative techniques we've seen timers use to generate new income streams.

Then, we'll open the floor to attendees, offering a platform to share your own revenue-boosting tips.

What to Expect:

1. Real-world revenue strategies from fellow timers
2. Ideas for expanding your service offerings
3. Open discussion and Q&A with industry peers

Don't miss this opportunity to connect, learn, and walk away with ideas to help grow your timing business.

Recap

Tickets

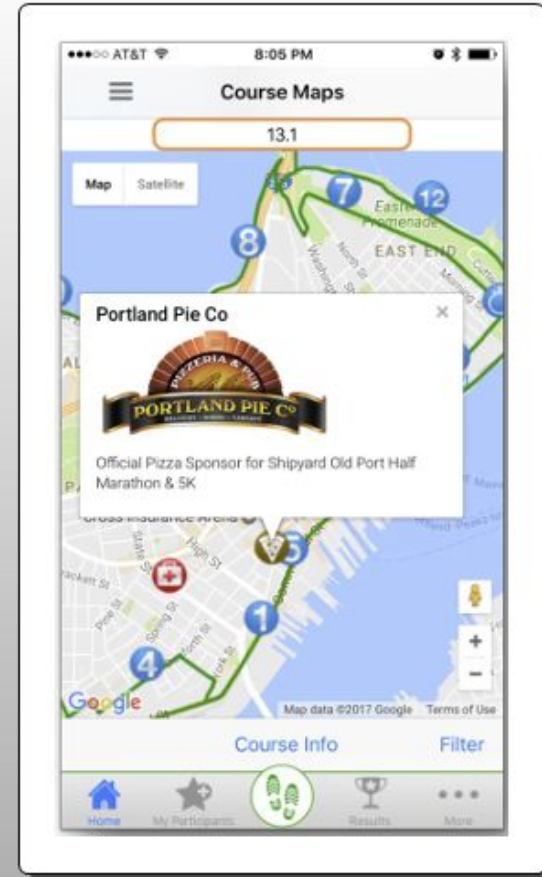

- Create a new revenue stream
- Solve a problem for races
 - Parking
 - Merch sales
 - Ticketing platform
- Increase revenue from T&F events

RaceJoy

- Increase sponsor activation
- Make your relationship with events “stickier”
- Increase participant and spectator engagement
- Sell splits (Bib Tracking)
- Give a tangible benefit (usage) to show races ROI

Announcer Feed

The easiest upsell

Announcer Feeds

Announcer feeds are the easiest upsell of these - most races have an announcer and a PA (or have easy access to them) and participants love hearing their name

- Participant Benefit: Hear their name, get cheered for
- Organizer Benefit: engagement with an activation point
- Timer Benefit: Easy sale, and a good data point to check against the Finish Line

Pricing Idea: $150 for a feed from the finish, $300 for an independent line ~150 feet before the finish

Result Display/Receipts

Let your audience interact with their results and share them

Results Display/Receipts

Give people a way to interact with their results on-site and share them on social media

- Participant Benefit: seeing the results immediately in an interactive way - something tangible like a receipt or a photo with their time on a board
- Organizer Benefit: engagement with an activation point, free marketing via social media shares
- Timer Benefit: Catches issues early, provides a “premium” service with existing data and branding opportunity

Pricing Idea: $250 for a video board station or $50 a receipt print station

www.resultreceipts.com

Result Kiosk and Device Rental

Be a one-stop shop for Timing integrations

Results Kiosk/Device Rental

Provide races with the technology they need to execute things like Dynamic Bib Assignment

- Participant Benefit: Interact with the results immediately
- Organizer Benefit: No need to find additional vendors for technology
- Timer Benefit: More income from tech already onsite or in your warehouse

Pricing Idea: $150 rental for Starlink (pays for a month!) for the media tent, $25/tablet for CheckIn and Kiosk, $100 for clock/stand

Photos/Videos and Certificates

Connect the data through results pages

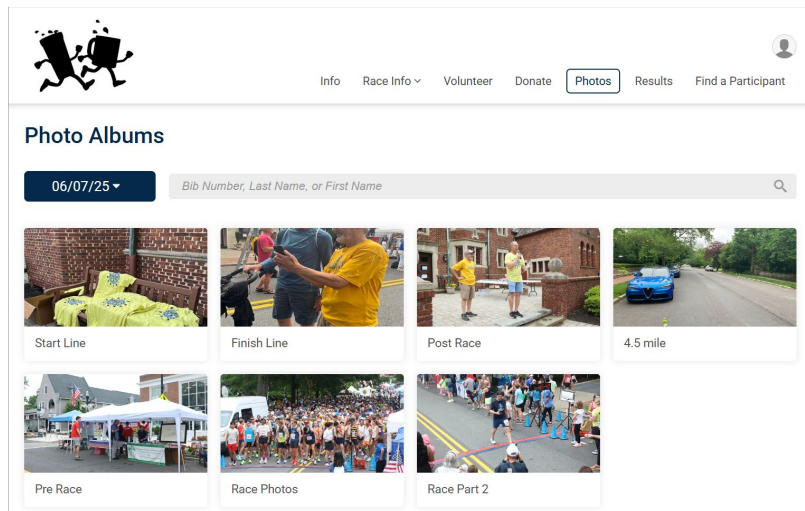

Photos/Video/Certificates

Use the RunSignup platform to elevate the results experience for participants

- Participant Benefit: “Premium” features without having to leave their normal results page
- Organizer Benefit: Potential sponsor activations, participants returning to the registration page post-race
- Timer Benefit: Introducing services not always thought of as timer-related and keeping customers in the RunSignup ecosystem for your tools.

Pricing Idea: $100 setup for photos, $50/angle for video, include Certificate setup (see websites as a service!)

Introduce Customers

Bring customers together to grow multiple races through your introductions

Introduce Customers

You know lots of people in the industry and go to lots of events. A rising tide lifts all boats - introduce a new Spring event to an existing Fall event who is looking to grow

- Participant Benefit: Get introduced to new events, get discounts
- Organizer Benefit: Reach new audiences, expand volunteer base, grow their events with their target customers
- Timer Benefit: Strengthen relationships, help new events find industry mentors that will make them more profitable to you

Pricing Idea: Host a get-together for your customers (ticketing event!) at a local brewery

Past Presentations

Expanding Timer Revenue: https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/12Vh78qMVfwBhARlqAVPNPeRp6LS1Fmt_6ZflBxZeD6w/edit?usp=sharing

- Timer Survey Results (Shelly)
- Recap of recent webinar topics (Shelly)
- Photos (rent devices to do photos)
- Announcer feed-same as below with splits!
- Selfie kiosk (rent out props/backdrop)
- Renting equipment (clocks, checkin tablets for results or photos, Internet devices)
- Result receipts, finisher certificates, addt'l results presentations?
- Video finish line-free, cheap, easy, simple, added timing back up
- Splits-think of splits in terms of many things

1-added direct revenue because you charge for the split.

2-Added runners, because you're enhancing the runners' experiences

3-Sponsors, giving your races more sponsor activation space

4-adding equipment at splits, clocks, etc.

5-enhanced Racejoy activations

6-more data=better timing accuracy
